Dear Pat and Stan,

STAT

☐ and I were thrilled when we heard about your nomination to head the CIA. We would have congratulated you sooner but were not too sure where to send anything. Now that we received your invitation to the Navy Ceremony and your official new address we are able to send you salutations. So a very belated "CONGRATULATIONS AND BEST WISHES! THEY COULDN'T HAVE CHOSEN A BETTER OR NICER PERSON FOR THE JOB."

Well you both must be pretty busy with changing jobs, tying up unfinished business and moving to a new home.

Best wishes in your new adventure!

Much love,

STAT
